

2017 Volume Highlights

Each month, FIA collects data on the volume of futures and options contracts traded on exchanges around the globe as well as open interest outstanding at the end of the month. This infographic provides a high-level view of what happened 2017 compared to the previous year. Visit <http://bit.ly/2017ETDVolume> to access the summary data set for 2017.

Volume by Type

Volume by Category

■ Financial Contracts ■ Commodity Contracts

- Futures accounted for 59% of total exchange-traded derivatives volume in 2017.
- Financial contracts accounted for 76% of total volume in 2017.
- Interest rate futures and options set a record of 3.97 billion contracts in annual volume.
- Agricultural futures and options trading fell to lowest level since 2013.

Top 10 Derivatives Exchanges

Ranked by number of futures and options traded and/or cleared in 2017

- CME Group was the top exchange by 2017 volume with more than 4 billion contracts.
- NSE India was the second ranked exchange with nearly 2.5 billion contracts traded.
- Exchanges in North America accounted for 34% of total volume in 2017.
- See the full exchange ranking at <http://bit.ly/2017ETDVolume>.