

Commodities 2023

13-14 Sept • The Houstonian • Houston, Texas

This Forum tackles hot topics and current issues affecting the commodity derivatives markets. This year's will feature a multi-track program designed for trading, risk, compliance and legal personnel covering energy and other commodity markets. Experts from leading commodity producers, brokers, exchanges, market makers, government agencies and law firms will explore the latest market trends and share insights on managing unprecedented volatility and a complex and ever-changing regulatory landscape. This Forum is the perfect opportunity to connect with individuals and firms focused on commodities in the US and throughout the Americas.
